

Paluk Gupta

EY Singapore

PAGERO

This certification is provided after the successful completion of the Certified Implementer Program, and it is personal and untransferable.

The certification is granted on a personal level, but in the context of a partnership. Therefore, in the case of partnership termination, or in the event of the certification-holder no longer being part of the partner company, the badge is no longer valid and must be removed from all channels where it was shared by the certification-holder.